Fall Foliage Adult Chamber Music Program 2010

Please keep this page for your records

The Fall Foliage Adult Chamber Music Program began in 2001. Each fall, we bring together amateur musicians to work with world-class professional musicians who serve as their coaches and mentors. This year is the 10th anniversary year for the program and the 50th anniversary year for Bay Chamber Concerts.

Who may apply? Individual string players, pianists, and pre-formed string or wind ensembles, (quartet or larger). If you are not applying as part of a pre-formed ensemble, our Artistic Director Michael Reynolds will use the information you provide on your application to place you in an ensemble suited to your abilities.

Where is the program held? Most coaching will be held in Bay Chamber Concerts new home in the newly renovated Shepherd Block in downtown Rockport, ME.

Who is the faculty? The Artistic Director since the inception of the program is Michael Reynolds, cellist of the Muir Quartet. Coaching faculty for the 2010 Fall Foliage Weekend includes: Reynolds and fellow Muir quartet member Peter Zazofsky, violin; Bayla Keyes, professor of violin at Boston University and member of Triple Helix, piano trio in residence at Wellesley College; violist Maria Lambros of the Mendelssohn Quartet and the Peabody Conservatory; pianist Cary Lewis, member of the Lanier Trio and recently retired from the faculty of Georgia State University in Atlanta; and Marc Johnson, cellist with the Vermeer Quartet and faculty member at Boston University.

What repertoire do we play? You may choose your own or Mike Reynolds will make suggestions.

When is the program? October 8 - 11, 2010, Columbus Day Weekend. Please plan to arrive by 9:00 a.m. on Friday and make your departure plans to follow the concert on Monday after 1:00 p.m.

Why do we ask you for a rating? Artistic Director Mike Reynolds uses this information to form ensembles. Many people use the Amateur Chamber Music Players online "Self Rating Guide." You may also list pieces in your repertoire as examples of your playing level.
www.acmp.net/ratings

May I bring a companion? YES! They are welcome to join the group for meals, reception and the professional concert for a fee of $75.

Where do I stay? Housing is not provided, but the area abounds with lovely inns and hotels. Some popular choices: Country Inn (207) 236-2725, Strawberry Hill Motor Inn (207) 594-5462, Schooner Bay Motor Inn (207) 236-2205. Also visit the Chamber of Commerce websites for Camden and Rockland.

What should I bring? October is a glorious time of year in Rockport, Maine. Temperatures can range from the 30s to the 60s, we recommend that you wear layers and bring along your foul weather gear. Please pack a music stand and copies of your music. Don't forget items that you need for your instrument, extra strings, different glasses, etc....

How do I get to Rockport, ME? Rockport is located 2 hours north of Portland, ME and 4 hours north of Boston. The closest major airports are the Portland International Jetport (PWM) or Bangor Airport (BGR). Concord Trailways offers service from Boston to Camden, which is 2 miles from downtown Rockport. Rockport is located off coastal route 1.

What meals are provided? Bay Chamber Concerts will provide an orientation breakfast, lunch each day, a private reception with participants and faculty on the Friday evening and two dinners, one Friday and a lobster bake Sunday.

How much does it cost? $700 ($50 application fee + $650 tuition fee). Please submit one application form per participant. Registrations received after the program registration deadline will be processed as space permits with the approval of Artistic Director Michael Reynolds.

Application fee and deposit due ($200) by May 14, 2010: $50 application fee + $150 deposit. The $50.00 application fee is required of all applicants, is non-refundable and not applicable to any other charges. Please remit at time of application. If you refer a musician and they register for the program, your application fee will be waived (limited to one referral)!

Tuition due by July 31, 2010: $500. Tuition includes coaching with world class faculty; two breakfasts, daily lunch and two dinners; evening reception; recreation activities; and tickets to the Chamber Music All-Stars Concert. Non-playing guests' meals and concert tickets are NOT included, and can be purchased for $75, inclusive.

Early Registration: Save $50.00! Pay tuition in full by May 14, 2010, and total due is $650.
